

The Ambleside Centre

We need your help! Come and join our governors!

As a school and pre-school The Ambleside Centre is managed by a team of Governors—and we are now looking for more people to join them!

What do governors do?

They support the Head Teacher and staff in meeting the educational needs of the children through

- monitoring the curriculum
- Setting and Monitoring of the school budget and other financial processes
- Supporting the Centre through Ofsted visits
- Setting and agreeing policies and procedures to ensure we meet government legislation in the curriculum, in business and in health and safety

So who are governors?

They could be

- Parents
- Grandparents /aunts/uncles/other friends or family members
- Work colleagues or associates
- Anyone in the community!

No experience necessary—just enthusiasm and a little time.

So if you know anyone who is interested, or you yourself would like to be part of the team, then please speak to Joanne, Kerrie or Kirsten and we will be happy to tell you more.
